Abetted in the Bloody Deed by Her Spouse's
Brother and Both Are Caught
Running Away.

HATTVILLE, Neb., June 17.—James Gorman and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Thomas Gorman, were arrested yesterday, charged with the murder of the late Mrs. Gorman. Thomas Gorman, who was a wealthy cattle owner, disappeared two weeks ago and his wife and brother gave it out that he had gone West to seek another location for their herd. A few days later, Mrs. Gorman and James began selling the personal property of the late Mrs. Gorman, disposing of as much of it as they could. They left with a six-horse wagon, taking Mrs. Gorman's three-year-old daughter. Neighbors became suspicious and made a search of the premises, finding the mutilated body of Thomas Gorman buried in the garden. Sheriff Tate started in pursuit of the couple and arrested them near Colby. Gorman was disposed to fight and was handcuffed with difficulty. The little girl was not with them and it is thought her body is in the Big Horn river. Much excitement has been caused by the arrests and the citizens are demanding that the child be produced unharmed at once. The man and woman are in jail at Basin, awaiting a hearing.

AN OLD ESTATE IS DIVIDED.

Dougherty Heirs Share
Property Valued at

Judge Ozden today handed down a decree distributing the estate of the late Elizabeth A. Dougherty, valued at nearly $500,000, to the grandchildren, Lewis A. Dougherty, Mrs. Ada Clement, wife of John Clement, and James W. Dougherty. Elizabeth A. Dougherty, another grandchild, was named to share the estate, but the bequest lapsed with her death about two years ago. Under the terms of the will the estate could not be distributed until the youngest grandchild had become of age. This was James A. Dougherty, who has just attained his majority. The property distributed consists chiefly of about 15,000 acres of land near Livermore and Dougherty Station. There is $50,000 cash to be distributed. Captain William Roberts has been acting as trustee of the estate, represented by Nye & Kinsell.

BOURBONS BAWL AGAINST TRUSTS

ILLINOIS DEMOCRATS OBJECT TO ABUSING THE BOYS IN BLUE.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 17.—John P. Hopkins, chairman of the State Committee, called the Democratic Convention to order in Machinery Hall this morning. Lawrence B. Stringer was elected temporary chairman and said:

"In vain shall the people find relief from these mighty monsters of greed from the party whose tariff policy has reduced them, which has fed, nourished and maintained them, and which is the suppliant recipient of their bounty. Feints to regulate, grandstand plays to chasten, paper prosecutions and injunctions to restrain, do not and will not suffice. If the law be broken let the offender be indicted, tried and convicted of their crimes, as the law provides, rather than to be pleasantly warned not break the law again. Drastic legislation is needed and extreme measures required to rend these trusts apart, and democracy alone, which neither loves them nor fears them, is the only remedy in the land that can defeat and destroy them. Destroy high tariff and you destroy the trusts. Destroy the trusts and you destroy the soul and quench the fire of the imperialistic and colonial policy that has bawled down the nation's flag and raised a counterfeit copy of the same instead, with clots of blood for stars."

It is said that several changes in resolutions as outlined this morning will be made and that the Philippine policy will be entirely re-written. "If they report anything looking like a savage attack on the army," said J. Nich. Perrin, of the twenty-second district, "there will be something doing. There are lots of us who do not like criticism of the American soldier, and we will fight anything that looks too severe."

HERMAN TUBBS KILLED IN RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.

A Frightened Horse Wrecks His Road Car and Hurls Him to Death in Sausalito.

SAUSALITO, June 17.—Herman A. Tubbs, vice-president of the Tubbs Cordage Company and a well known resident of Oakland, was instantly killed in a runaway accident on Central avenue in Old Sausalito last evening. Mr. Tubbs was driving out with two ladies in a road car when the horse, a spirited animal, became frightened at the sound of the evening gun at Fort Baker, and plunged madly down a sharp declivity. Mr. Tubbs held pluckily to the lines, and after the runaway had gone a distance of about two blocks he made a desperate effort to swing the horse into a side road leading up a hill. This proved to be a fatal move. As the maddened horse changed its course the wheels became crumpled and the trap turned over. Mr. Tubbs and the two women were thrown out a distance of fully thirty feet upon the hard road. The man struck on his head and shoulders and his neck was broken. Death came almost instantly.

One of the women was thrown about thirty feet and was badly stunned. The other had her hip fractured. Both will recover, however. The horse fell where the rig upset and his neck was broken by striking into the bank. The trap was smashed into kindling wood.

A number of horrified spectators to the terrible accident at once rushed to the scene. Tubbs had not received a scratch from the fall, but was already dead. The two women were both unconscious and it was at first believed that they also were dead. Dr. Mays and Dr. H. J. Crumpton were summoned to attend them. Soldiers from Fort Baker held back a crowd of frantic relatives and friends, while the injured were looked for.

The fatal accident occurred almost directly in front of a handsome residence which Mr. Tubbs has just built at the residence of his mother in East Oakland, but was accustomed to spend a portion of his summers in Sausalito, where he was a familiar figure, as he was exceedingly fond of driving. Hon. F. W. Henshaw, of the Supreme Court and E. M. Hall, who are married to sisters of Mr. Tubbs, have arrived and taken charge of the body and effects. The remains will be shipped to Oakland for interment.

Herman A. Tubbs was widely known and popular in Oakland. He was also well known in San Francisco business circles. He was a director in the Union Savings Bank and vice-president of the Tubbs Cordage Company which was founded by his father, the late Hiram Tubbs. He was a member of the Athenian and Reliance Clubs and also of the Oakland lodge of Elks. He was born in Oakland 31 years ago and has lived in this city all his life. He was the only surviving son of his widowed mother, with whom he made his home, and who is broken hearted with grief over his death. Mrs. William G. Henshaw, Mrs. F. W. Henshaw, Mrs. George A. Greenwood and Mrs. E. M. Hall are his sisters. Mr. Tubbs leaves a handsome fortune. The body will be laid in the family vault in Mountain View cemetery.

The body of Herman A. Tubbs arrived from Sausalito this afternoon. No arrangements have yet been made for the funeral.

GRAND JURY MEETS AGAIN.

Continues Inquiry Into the Charges Against H. P.
Dalton Etal.

MAJOR INDICTED FOR BRIBERY.

Executive of Minneapolis
Charged With Buying the Sheriff's Office.

George Oakes was recalled by the Grand Jury today when the investigation of the charges against County Assessor H. P. Dalton and President G. B. Daniels of the Enquirer was resumed. Oakes was before the inquisitors about a half hour.

L. G. Jordan, bookkeeper and cashier of the Enquirer, was next called and requested to produce the books of the corporation. It is supposed that he is endeavoring to learn from an inspection of the cash book and ledger if the books ordered by Dalton were delivered and credit shown for the money paid.

Secretary M. D. L. Hadley of the Enquirer was at the Court House, but was not called before the jury. Neither Dalton nor Daniels have yet been before the jury.

RUNNING FIGHT WITH BANDITS.

SHOTS ARE EXCHANGED BUT THE MURDERERS MAKE THEIR ESCAPE.

VANCOUVER, Wash., June 17.—A battle occurred about 2 a. m. between Bert Biesecker and Lon Davis, two members of Sheriff Marsh's posse, and two armed men answering the description of Tracy and Merrill, the escaped convicts, in which eleven rifle shots were exchanged. Biesecker had a narrow escape, his clothing having been pierced by a bullet. About 11 o'clock Biesecker and Davis noticed two men come down to Salmon Creek and get a car at a point about six miles north of Vancouver. The watchers were not sure of their identity and halted until they again appeared in the road. The guards then advanced and when about thirty yards distant, Biesecker sent a rifle shot in the direction of the supposed convicts. The fire was promptly returned and six shots were exchanged, one of which took effect so far as known. Both parties then took to cover and after waiting in their hiding place more than an hour the guards moved up a quarter of a mile, where their horses were tied. They again lay in wait another half hour in the hope of seeing the fugitives, but nothing occurred, and they got into the buggy and started toward town. They had gone but a short distance when three rifle shots came from the brush near the roadside and the guards drove for their lives. Five shots were sent after them. The first shot struck a horse and passed Biesecker's right arm by a close hole through the side of his coat, one wounded a horse in the head, another grazed a horse's side and a fifth.

REDUCED TO POVERTY BY A HEAVY FORECLOSURE.

A Decree of $116,502.15 Against Frank Garcia
Strips Him of the Property He Had for Years.

By a decree of foreclosure for $116,502.15, handed down by Judge Greene this morning, Frank Garcia, an old and once wealthy settler, has been stripped of all of his possessions. The judgment was entered in favor of Thomas H. B. Varney and John Taylor, surviving trustees of the estate of the late Thomas Varney. J. B. Lanktree was appointed commissioner, with bond fixed at $2,500, to sell the property involved, which consists of about 2000 acres in Contra Costa County and about twenty acres of land at Hayward, upon which there are some buildings. It was understood that the property is worth about $25,000 or $30,000 less than the amount of the judgment.

The case is not without a pathetic side. After years of toil in rearing and educating a family of eleven children, Garcia, who is 70 years of age, is now left penniless. This judgment takes from him the remainder of his once vast holdings in Alameda and Contra Costa Counties and he is left to pass his declining years in poverty.

KING EDWARD IS IMPROVED.

WILL HUSBAND HIS STRENGTH
FOR THE CORONATION CEREMONY.

LONDON, June 17.—It is officially stated that King Edward is much better this morning. He passed a good night and his progress toward complete recovery is uninterrupted. The precautionary measures ordered by his physicians are due to the necessity of husbanding his strength in view of the fatigue of the coronation week. Therefore, the King will remain at Windsor today. He was keenly disappointed at being unable to attend the Ascot Heath race meeting today, which he intended to open with all the state ceremonial of the early days of Queen Victoria. He hopes, however, to be present Thursday, Gold Cup Day.

Queen Alexandra and the Prince and Princess of Wales went to the races today.

VENEZUELAN FIRE ON A NORWEGIAN SHIP

ST. THOMAS, (D. W. I.), June 17.—Advices from Georgetown, British Guiana, under date of June 14, say that the Norwegian steamer Jotun arrived at Georgetown that morning from Venezuela and the chief officer reported that Venezuelan revolutionists "commandeered" the vessel June 6 at Baracas. The chief of the party, General Valencia Perez, took charge of the vessel. Revolutionary troops were then embarked on board the Jotun and she conveyed about 250 of them to Bolivar, landing at the latter place June 7. Then Captain Meling was allowed to resume command of the ship and she was taken on the other side of the bay, where she loaded cattle. On her return voyage, when passing St. Felix, Venezuelan troops fired on the Jotun from two vessels, killing Captain Meling and wounding a passenger named Nunez. The government vessels pursued the Jotun, but she succeeded in escaping.

POMP AND PAGEANTRY AT ASCOT HEATH.

The First Full State Parade Since the Death of Alberi, But Edward Was Missing.

LONDON, June 17.—The royal procession left Windsor Castle for Ascot third. Thirteen horses started. In the race for the Prince of Wales stake at Ascot, Lord Patrick, the Derby winner, was a hot favorite at 2 to 1 on. The horses finished as follows: The Duke of Westminster's Cupbearer (M. Cannon) won; J. Gubbins and Patrick (Martin) second; Arthur James' Persius (Maher) third. Seven horses started. An objection was raised against Cupbearer on the ground of bumping and boring. The stewards sustained the objection and Lord Patrick, who was three-fourths of a length behind, was awarded the race. The Duke of Devonshire's Cheers, ridden by Spencer was placed third.

The procession was the first full state parade of its description since the death of the Prince Consort, and consisted of eight carriages, each drawn by four horses. The mounted equestrians and gaily liveried postillions and outriders formed an imposing cavalcade.

Leaving the palace quadrangle by the George IV gate, the royal cortege drove down the famous long walk, which was lined with cheering crowds, and, crossing the review grounds, the procession reached the New Miles gate and passed up the course to the royal pavilion.

In spite of the inclemency of the weather, immense crowds assembled about the course and the royal party was everywhere warmly welcomed. The royal enclosure was brilliant with colors and the picturesque costumes of Indian princes. While large numbers of ambassadors, colonial premiers and diplomats, including Henry White, secretary of the United States Embassy and Mrs. White, John R. Carter, second secretary of the Embassy and Miss Carter, and Mrs. Cheate, Messdames Montgomery-Sears and Adair and other Americans were present in the enclosure. U. S. Ambassador Cheate, Mrs. Cheate, Whitelaw Reid, the special Ambassador of the United States and Mrs. Reid did not go to Ascot. All the big houses in and around Ascot contributed their quota to the fashionable throng.

The gold vase of 200 sovereigns, given by the King to George Faber's son, was won by George Faber's son, who was second and Red Lily third.

This cleared the way for the big race of the day, the Ascot stakes handicap of twenty sovereigns each, which was won by Scullion. Carbine finished second and Red Lily third.

Rock San (Maher) won the Coventry stakes. The La Fleche fully (Martin) was second and Red Lily third.

TRIED TO SELL A STOLEN GUN

A BRACE OF MEN WHO MAY BE THE MISSING BURGLARS.

B. Crabtree and J. Davis were arrested last yesterday afternoon as suspects of robbing the Pierce Hardware Company.

The men walked into the store of the firm yesterday and offered to sell a new revolver. The revolver was purchased and upon investigation it was discovered that the revolver was one of those stolen from the firm several nights ago.

The men were held until the police were called and Detective Sherry took them to the City Prison, where they will be held until an investigation can be made.

The men claim to have bought the revolver from two negroes at the mole.

CONTRACT IS HELD TO BE INVALID.

In the action brought by A. P. Holland against John E. Lutz, H. C. McKee, Lillian M. McKee, and Nellie R. Lutz to compel them to sell him the property at Broadway and Tenth street upon which the First National Bank is located, Judge Greene today rendered judgment for the defendants for their costs. The alleged contract upon which Holland based his action was held to be invalid because it was not shown that there had been a technical delivery. This could not be shown because the court held that the wives of Lutz and McKee could not testify as to the agency of their husbands for them in the transaction.

J. J. GILDEA IS SHY HIS ELK'S TOOTH.

Among the many San Francisco guests at last evening's scene of hilarity on Oakland's streets was J. J. Gildea, of J. J. Gildea & Company, merchants at 754, 756, 758 Market street. Mr. Gildea, who is a pioneer member of the Elks, was the staunch opinion that Oakland should never more be known as a "jay town." One little matter that developed this idea in him was the fact that he is minus a superb souvenir elk's tooth, mounted, and it is surmised that his watch vanished at about the same time. He admits that the crowd was of such proportions, and the excitement so intense, particularly in his own case, that he would hardly have noticed it if this vest had been fully searched by the right-fingered gentry who "touched" him.

Mr. Gildea will, however, continue to visit Oakland during the current doings of his fellow Elks, and he takes his loss lightly.

KING CARNIVAL AND ELKS JOIN IN A WILD NIGHT OF REVELRY.

A Burlesque Pageant, Unique in Character, on a Scale of Perfection Which Charmed Thousands of People.

It was Elks' night at the carnival last evening and the streets of Oakland were thronged with people, who had crowded and jammed and packed together to witness the lodge's burlesque parade, and the parade was well worth seeing. Over a thousand Elks were in line, arrayed in the most fantastic costumes. There were Elks in autos, and Elks on foot, Elks on boats and Elks on mules. The boldness of some of the designs was rather startling, but then everybody entered into the spirit of the occasion, and along the line of march, it was but one continuous ovation and roar of laughter.

FORMING.

The parade was formed at Third and Broadway, and the line of march was the same as on Friday evening last. The first division in the parade was composed of the police patrol and constabulary. In the former rode Fred Graham as the "Lone Fisherman," the convict, J. E. Cone, and "Happy Holligan," Charles Hart. All were escorted by Harry Matthews, Charles Shole and Jack Matthews. The "police," composed of chief, S. C. Hodgkins, G. R. Lukens, H. C. Campbell, A. P. Leach, E. R. Stevens, A. H. Dreed, A. C. Hodges, Dr. C. E. Curdiss, Carl Berch, Mort Smith, Eugene Van Court, W. J. Hennessy, Charles T. Ort, W. H. J. Matthews, H. B. Jeffrey, W. J. Keating, and R. H. Moore.

Following the constabulary rode the grand marshal, A. P. Smiley, magnificently arrayed in a red demon's costume and his ten aides, A. V. Tony and G. W. Austin were also so attired.

The first float was the Elk float driven by Max Schluter and guarded by W. F. Simpson, J. E. Rooney, W. L. Bolton and Jerry Vasswell.

And then the fun commenced in real earnest. In motley array, without order or arrangement except that of whim and caprice came farmers and confidence men, school girls, and beggars, the bridal carriage with its attending pages, and the float of the "Casade Laundry," automobiles, a "chainless" "go ridden" by George A. Kelly, and the Rip Van Winkle of the procession.

JOCKEY CLUB.

The California Jockey Club was largely represented in the parade, as was also the Western Jockey Club. The last wagon in the parade exhibited Professor Katzenjammer's trained animals, in which Professor E. J. Kelly, and his wife, William Kelly, were displayed in the cage with two kittens.

HEESEMAN AS A BRIDE.

Perhaps the most laughable representation given in the parade was a party in which Charlie Heesman carried off the part of the blushing bride, and Peter Sloan that of the bridegroom. The bride was beautifully gowned in an Oakland made creation. A long veil was caught up ten feet in the rear of the cap by six pages. The bride and groom were attended by the best man Morris Cramer, D. McLaughlin acted as coochman for the happy couple, and Ray Baker as footman.

The automobile of G. M. Stolz and his son P. A. Stolz also attracted considerable attention. The motive power came from a horse and the car was held at the rear of the rig. The horse had horns and ribs that could be counted. "dilettos" with him.

THE BABIES.

The mysterious "babies" recently left at the West Oakland Home, and adopted by the Elks were carried in the line by A. L. McPherson, and George A. Kelly. The babies proved to be little pigs. Voting was started last night for the most popular Elk, and the twins will be entrusted to his care for their future bringing up.

VAQUEROS, ETC.

The California Jockey Club was represented by the following persons: William Fieldwick, J. Evans, George Peters, Walter Walsh, Joseph Murphy, H. Howard, W. J. Hennessy, E. Hayes, P. Smith, J. Chisholm, B. Lenhy, Frank Stud, J. Evans, T. H. Hulpin and the boys were costumed as jockeys, Chinamen, cowboys, and vaqueros.

THROUGH AT FAIR.

Fully 18,000 people must have entered the gates yesterday at the different booths. The ladies are simply flooded with work. The booth of the Young Women's Christian Association could hardly meet the demand made upon it. Today Mr. Arthur Evered, of Livered a Bunkers Hill address at the grounds under the auspices of the association ladies, and Mr. Lowell Redd sang "The Sword of Bunkers Hill."

To-morrow will be California day and the booth will be under the charge of Mrs. Irving Davis, Mrs. Fred Stolz, Miss Pearl King, Miss Charlotte Case, Miss Alice Conklin, Mrs. Schrock, Mrs. Duggins, Miss Alice Roberts, Mrs. George Strong. The splendor and Miss Reed. The ladies will make a specialty of creamed abalone.

ALOHA'S DISPLAY.

One of the most popular booths at the fair is presided over by Aloha Parlor, 106 Native Daughters of the Golden West. They have a very beautiful exhibition of cut flowers and potted plants, all of which are for sale, and will be delivered to any address free of charge. A specialty is made of buttonholes and corsage bouquets, of choice carnations and maiden hair.

The Alohas are located directly opposite the band stand, between the High School building and the Observatory, and are more than pleased to have Native Daughters and Sons also visit them. The flowers are nearly always surrounded by a crowd of admirers. Most of them are donated to the parlor by Sanborn.

The other half of the booth is given over to refreshments, and twice last evening supplies ran short and had to be replenished. Mrs. J. H. Rooney, whose husband was marshal of the First Division of Elks in the opening parade, is in charge of this department, and she also is assisted by other popular ladies of Aloha Parlor.

The Alliance Athletic Club Circus is meeting with unusual success. On Saturday they could not accommodate the large number of people who came to see the circus, and had to call for police protection to keep the people back. To-day the three Rittler brothers performed in acrobatic feats, the triple flying act was given by Olson, Grimm and Durning; a double trapeze act by Grimm and Durning; a slack wire performance by the Rittler brothers; and club juggling by Otto Rittler; juggling for knives and clubs and baton swinging by George Teslo.

The acts are changed frequently in order that no performance may be exactly similar to a preceding one. Talent from the Olympic Club and others.

THE ELKS' COURT.

The Elks' County Court opened last night and from the record of the docket it would appear that the "fair grounds" were filled with many lawbreakers. "G. Wash Reed" presided as Judge and the officers of the court were "F. Polder Barnett," prosecuting attorney; "C. Friedricks Pugh," clerk; and "Pop" McFeely, bailiff.

A patrol wagon and sixteen uniformed policemen were in attendance. Jack Matthews drove the wagon and H. B. Jeffries was Chief of Police.

One hundred and twenty-eight culprits were brought before the bar of justice and fined 50 cents. Fourteen were guilty and fined all the way from 10 cents to one dollar.

OFFENDERS.

Judge Percy Long of San Francisco was found guilty of going to see "Gay Paree" and fined 50 cents. The additional charge of being a poor judge of lawyers was placed against him and it cost him 50 cents more for having engaged J. J. McDonald to defend him.

Varney Gaskill was found guilty of going under an assumed name and it cost him two bottles of wine for the court and its officers.

Dr. O. D. Hamlin pleaded guilty to practicing medicine without a license. Senator F. W. Leavitt was found guilty of having no visible means of support and keeping the company of dissolute persons.

Judge F. B. Ogden paid one dollar for violating the curfew ordinance. Judge H. A. Melvin was fined 50 cents for denying property to his own by reflecting his image in a mirror and thereby shattering the same.

R. E. Revalk was convicted of fast driving. Judge Reed called Judge Crowell to sit in banc on the case of H. W. Pulifer, who was charged with allowing his hair to grow to such a length as to give him the appearance of a Quaker doctor.

Judge Crowell declared the said hair to be a public nuisance and fined Mr. Pulifer's hair at one dollar.

Capt. W. R. Hume gave bail in the amount of 50 cents for having a tomato can of diamonds buried in his backyard. He will come up for trial Saturday night.

A warrant was issued for the arrest of P. E. Samuel, of San Francisco, for sending his family to the Hawaiian Islands, to be gone until after the close of the Elks' Fair.

A warrant was issued for the arrest of Dr. D. D. Crowley for driving a pair of zebras through the streets of Oakland.

The officers of the court for this evening are: Judge, J. E. Esaw McElroy; Prosecuting Attorney, "J. Waterbury Stetson"; Clerk, "Pop Priest"; Bailiff, "John Jayhawk Mitchell."

SOCIAL SESSION.
A mid-night social session of the Elks Lodge was held last night at the Dewey Theater.

In the absence of Director-General Schluter and Exalted Ruler G. R. Lukens, the meeting was called to order by Past Exalted Ruler H. A. Melvin and Esteemed Leading Knight H. C. Chapin.

During the course of a few happy remarks by the chairman, H. A. Melvin, Mr. Schaefer and G. R. Lukens entered the building, and were at once escorted to the stage.

After a few remarks of acknowledgment, the courtesy of Landers Stevens in giving the Elks and their visiting brothers the use of his theater, a selection was played by an orchestra made up from the different musicians at the fair. Then followed a series of brilliant songs and dances by the members of the Gay Paree Company, and winding up.

up with the famous Fatima in an original stunt.

PROMINENT ELKS.

Exalted Ruler Lukens then brought some prominent Elks, including George De Goffa, Myron Whilden, S. T. Hodgkins, Joe Kelly, John Mitchell, and many prominent visiting Elks upon the stage, giving a human setting to the two famous entertainers, Pete Sloan of San Francisco and D. McLaughlin of this city. This combination proved especially popular, and the men were forced to respond to five encores.

Fatima gave a series of poses, and callahan received a tremendous ovation for his act with the drum major's baton.

After rousing cheers the whole audience joined in "Auld Lang Syne." Then Past Exalted Ruler H. A. Melvin was escorted to the stage, where he sang for the audience in his customary splendid style.

The entertainment wound up at 2:35 a. m., all the Elks joining in a circle with hands clasped and sang "Auld Lang Syne." The visiting brothers were escorted to the Narrow Gauge Depot, where a special train awaited them to take them to San Francisco.

COLUMBIA CLOAK AND SUIT HOUSE.
This reliable cloak and suit company has a very creditable exhibit at the fair, and not a few notice the neat display they make. It is a well-known fact that this favorite firm enjoy the reputation of having about the finest and most varied stock in their line of any store in Oakland. The reputation of their made-to-order goods in suits, jackets, skirts, etc., is widespread, and their prices at all times are very reasonable. A perfect fit and satisfaction as to price and material has made for this popular firm the reputation of being Oakland's leading and favorite headquarters for the line they follow. Their salesrooms, at 429, Fourteenth street, near Broadway, is usually crowded with eager buyers, where the very latest styles and materials can invariably be found.

OAKLAND BOTTLING COMPANY.
By far the handsomest booth at the fair is that of Carl S. Plaut, who is the resident representative of the Wieland and Fredericksburg Brewing Company of San Francisco; also the celebrated "Lohegrin" lager beer. This artistically and neatly arranged quarters attracts much attention and is splendidly situated on a most convenient corner for drinking purposes. The northeast corner of Eleventh and Jefferson streets. Mr. Plaut has shown extremely good taste in all the arrangements of his beautiful exhibit, which is the center of observation. The favorite beverages that are displayed are no new introduction to the public, as new beers have for years been the standard of excellence at the bar, at the banquet and the dining table. The reputation is widespread, and the popularity is extending. Merit will tell, and the quantity of consumption in the northeast corner of Eleventh and Jefferson streets. THE REMAINS OF MRS. REID ARE FINALLY LAID TO REST.

SAN LEANDRO, June 17.—A surprise party was given recently in honor of Mrs. L. J. Martin, it being the occasion of her lady's birthday. The affair was carried out very successfully and the surprise was complete. The party was given by a number of Mrs. Martin's friends, who arranged to have her away from home for a few hours on the evening of the affair. When she returned home she found the house filled with a merry crowd and a most enjoyable time followed. During the evening games were played, speeches made and an impromptu program of musical numbers was rendered. A delightful supper was also served before the party broke up. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. V. Braga, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Terra, Mr. and Mrs. Pine, Mrs. Dutra, G. W. Paine's Celery Compound
Has Proved a Blessing to All Ranks and Conditions of People in Summer.

A Prominent and Popular Chicago Lady Restored to Health.

The success of Paine's Celery Compound in banishing the ills and diseases that follow people into the summer time, has not been confined to any particular class of society. Men, women, business and professional life, mechanics, farmers, women leaders in society, and the wives and mothers of humble homes, have all by voice and pen contributed strong testimony in favor of the medicine that restored them to health and strength.

When Paine's Celery Compound is used there is no more neuritis, rheumatism, dyspepsia, stomach derangements, liver or kidney troubles, the blood once full and stagnant, is made fresh and pure, and courses with a regularity that brings vigor and happiness. The use of one bottle is often sufficient to establish a health robust enough to combat the dangers and perils that are common in hot weather.

Mrs. A. T. Lerner, Chicago, Ill., Corresponding Secretary of the W. C. T. U., tells of her complete restoration to health through the use of Paine's Celery Compound. She writes: "I was afflicted with a severe case of neuritis, which was described by one of Chicago's ablest physicians, Mrs. Lerner, through a surgical operation. After being in bed for four months I was able to get up, but was exceedingly weak and nervous, and unable to sleep or eat. My physician prescribed Paine's Celery Compound, and at once began to feel stronger. After using a few bottles my health and strength were completely restored, and I am glad to give this testimonial in its favor."

STUDENTS ARRIVE FOR MID-TERM INSTRUCTION.
Child is Bitten by Vicious Dog—Celebrate Summer Nuptials—Berkeley News Notes.

BERKELEY, June 17.—Students who will attend the summer session at the University are beginning to arrive in numbers. The six weeks' session will be formally opened on June 25th and will close on August 6th. Great preparations have been made this year by President Wheeler to make the mid-term school a notable one. The faculty will be composed of eminent men in realm of learning from all the leading educational institutions in America. Aside from the regular course a special effort will be made to popularize the courses in irrigation, forestry, agriculture, dairying and other studies bearing on the practical side of life.

Professor Bernard Edward Fernow, D. D., Director of the New York State College of Forestry, will deliver a series of nine lectures bearing upon forestry in all its phases. Professor Fernow is considered an authority on the subject, and his lectures will be exhaustive. The series will be open to the public. The lectures will be delivered in the Students' Observatory during the first three weeks of the summer session.

The department in Agriculture will be in charge of Professor William Henry Arnold, dean of the College of Agriculture in the University of Wisconsin. He will lecture on the "Mineral Nutrition of the Soil." This course will be of great practical value and will be well attended by students studying agriculture.

Professor Edward J. Wickson of the University of California will give a series of lectures on Horticulture, giving special attention to the commercial side of the subject.

The authorities at the University have advertised the above awakened considerable interest throughout the State. Many enrollments have been received from the interior of the State for the course in agriculture and kindred studies. The object of the cause is to give the agricultural class scientific knowledge of that occupation.

It is thought by so doing that a lasting benefit will be conferred on the State, especially in raising the commercial plane of these industries.

To obtain a uniformity in the University publications the system has been reorganized and placed under the control of one individual.

The printing of University bulletins and pamphlets will be placed for the time being in the hands of the University printing offices. One of the benefits derived will be that the library may be stocked with little expense with works of scientific value.

DON'T GET IN A SWEAT
Perspiration—"sweat" is what the Bible and we common people call it—is a way nature has of driving out of the body refuse that has no business there. We sweat more in summer, because, in the overheated bowels, undigested food ferments more quickly than in winter and produces irritating acids and gases. The bowels, overworked, try to relieve themselves by violent convulsions, causing terrible gripes and colics, and diarrhoeal discharges so acid as to make you sore, and leaving the intestines weak and worn out. Nature assists body-cleaning by sending the filth out through the pores of the skin. It is not safe to stop perspiring altogether but most of the impure matter should be sent out by natural movements of the bowels, and the offensive, ill-smelling, linen-staining sweat done away with. Keep your bowels strong all summer with the pleasant, candy cathartic CASCARETS, that clean the system and don't allow the excrement to be sweated out through the pores. Take a tablet every night, before going to bed. The work while you sleep and make you feel fine and cool all day.

THE GIFT TO GOMEZ.

Doubtless Secretary Root was convinced that making financial provision for Gomez was the best thing to be done under the circumstances to secure peace in Cuba. It certainly facilitated the establishment of a stable government satisfactory to the Cuban people, and thus promoted an early withdrawal of the American troops from the island. Looked at in this light the payment of the money was dictated by the highest wisdom and from a sincere desire to serve the best interests of Cuba.

While all this must be admitted, public opinion in the United States is not likely to take so lenient a view of General Gomez's conduct. It is very likely that he had no idea of doing anything not honorable and becoming in a soldier and a gentleman, yet his standpoint is one that will not favorably impress the American people. They look at things in a different light from the way he sees them, and will probably be inclined to judge him harshly. It will be hard to convince them that he did not make his country's extremity his opportunity and force a financial compromise as the price of letting a peaceful government be established in Cuba.

Notwithstanding this, it is well to remember that Spanish standards in such matters are different from ours. Among Spanish peoples taking the money would be generally regarded as a perfectly legitimate and honorable proceeding. It cannot be denied that General Gomez served the Cuban cause long and well; that he fought bravely in the field, and made great personal and financial sacrifices to secure his country's independence. Why should he not be rewarded? Why should not a grateful country recoup his losses and make ample provision for his declining years? Why not, indeed? Yet in America his method of obtaining his merited reward would be regarded as selling out politically and placing his patriotism on a commercial basis.

It is not worth while to debate whether the American or the Cuban standard is higher in this matter, but it is well to bear in mind that General Gomez has only done what the mass of his countrymen approves and what he regards as legitimate. This may not convey a high opinion of the moral and political ideas of the Cubans, but it is the truth nevertheless. Secretary Root and General Wood were compelled to deal with conditions as they found them, and to treat with the Cubans according to the sentiments and standards prevailing among them. But after all is said and done, the transaction does not tend to convey any great confidence in the Cuban government or the ability of the Cuban people to establish a permanent nation. Fancy George Washington doing what Gomez did!

WHERE THE CREDIT LIES.

At last Oakland is assured of close communication with Contra Costa county by the tunnel highway which affords an easy grade by a direct route. This means a considerable increase to the trade of the city and a consequent enlargement of the sphere of its mercantile influence. The assurance that the road will now be constructed is another evidence of the larger and better Oakland that is emerging from its chrysalis. Gratifying as it is, the assurance conveys but a faint idea of the trials, struggles and delays it represents. The project is the fruition of a quarter of a century of effort, and its assured success now is an ascription to the persistent energy and public spirit of a group of men to whom the community owes a great debt of thanks. Obstacle after obstacle has been met and surmounted by the members of the Merchants Exchange and the Board of Supervisors, who labored in harmony to get the road through. While all the Supervisors deserve praise, the services of Supervisor Rowe in this connection call for special commendation. When he entered the Board, the Merchants Exchange and the Supervisors had had the Contra Costa road under consideration for about two years, and it seemed as if the project had come to a standstill. Mr. Rowe made it a special issue, and from that day till this he has worked resolutely in spite of numerous discouragements to bring it to a successful consummation. He was fortunate in having the hearty support of Chairman Mitchell and Messrs. Talcott and Church, who never flagged in their devotion to the enterprise. In this hour when success seems natural, it is only justice that the men who made it possible should be remembered with gratitude.

The cruel libel about Judge Estee's divorced wife dying all alone in New York is an example of how easily stories derogatory to distinguished men can gain circulation. There is not a word of truth in this New York yarn. Judge Estee was never married but once and was never divorced. On the contrary, his friends know his domestic life to be singularly happy. After nearly thirty years of wedlock, Judge Estee and his wife are fondly devoted to each other, and all who have entered the precincts of their hospitable home have reason to remember how felicitous was the family circle, how gracious the old-time courtesy and how ideal the affection manifested between the pair. It is extraordinary that a story so false and absurd should have been printed so extensively where Judge Estee has been so long and extensively known.

Germany will strike off a three-mark coin to commemorate Prince Henry's visit to the United States. Three marks is about all it amounts to in a political way.

The garden fete given on Saturday for the King's Daughters and the Presbyterian Chinese Girls' Rescue Home was a pleasant affair. The beautiful grounds of Mrs. Albrecht, in Fruitvale, were thronged with guests, and an entertaining program was rendered.

The howl for Chinese immigration that comes from Manila is as shameful a cry as ever was raised. It is raised by a gang of conscienceless speculators who wish to drive out American grown sugar and tobacco in our home market with sugar and tobacco grown by Chinese coolies in the Philippines. We had better let the Philippines go to the devil rather than throw them open to the Chinese.

DEGRADING MARRIAGE.

A dispatch from Wheeling, West Virginia, tells of a man getting a decree of divorce and marrying another woman within five minutes. This is rather quicker than usual, but it pretty fairly represents the meat of the divorce business. In a majority of cases a remarriage is in sight when the divorce is sued for. Unquestionably divorces in a great many cases are secured on perfectly justifiable grounds and from legitimate motives, but these are in the minority.

It has come to such a pass that married men and women do not hesitate to engage in love affairs as they were single, and to hold intercourse looking to other matrimonial alliances while they are still living with their spouses. No moral need be drawn from this, for the bare statement carries its baleful suggestion. This loosening of the marriage tie is destructive of the domestic relation. It is laying the axe to the root of the family, for it involves a withdrawal of its moral sanctity as well as its legal safe guards. Unless the tendency to make divorce easy is checked, social demoralization must ensue.

But the shocking feature of the West Virginia case is that the man who was suing for a divorce was accompanied at the hearing of the cause by the woman he married immediately after. As soon as the decree was entered he walked across the hall of the court house, procured a license and was then and there married to the woman on the stand. This is sheer indecency. It shows that the couple had made all their matrimonial arrangements while the man was yet married to another.

The law of California which forbids a divorced couple to remarry within one year after the divorce is granted is aimed at marriages arranged prior to the securing of divorces and also against collusive marriages, but its object is largely defeated by the ease with which couples can go to Nevada and contract a marriage that is illegal under the laws of California. If such a law as we have in this State were on the statute books of all other States the public would be spared such demoralizing exhibitions as this West Virginia marriage and divorces would probably be less prevalent. However, courts should not be so ready to grant divorces on light and inconsequential grounds. Some judges make granting divorces a mere matter of form. If the outward forms of the law are complied with, they go no further, but grant the decree as a matter of course. This is not the proper way to approach the matter judicially. The marriage tie should not be severed until a diligent and rigid inquiry shows that some good and sufficient lawful reason for it exists. The fact that a couple are tired of each other and wish to separate, or desire to contract other marriages, is no cause for issuing a decree of divorce. Indeed, public policy demands that divorces should be denied when there is good reason to believe the grounds for seeking them are no better based.

When divorces are easy, marriages are contracted hastily, and often amount to no more than a temporary association in the sexual relation. People take little thought about tying a knot that is so easily untied. So transient emotions and temporary gratification frequently prompt an entrance into what should be the most sacred and binding contract known to man. Society, through its laws, should compel this contract to be respected and not degraded to serve as a mere cloak for rotating polygamy.

The cruel libel about Judge Estee's divorced wife dying all alone in New York is an example of how easily stories derogatory to distinguished men can gain circulation. There is not a word of truth in this New York yarn. Judge Estee was never married but once and was never divorced. On the contrary, his friends know his domestic life to be singularly happy. After nearly thirty years of wedlock, Judge Estee and his wife are fondly devoted to each other, and all who have entered the precincts of their hospitable home have reason to remember how felicitous was the family circle, how gracious the old-time courtesy and how ideal the affection manifested between the pair. It is extraordinary that a story so false and absurd should have been printed so extensively where Judge Estee has been so long and extensively known.

The wedding of Miss Neva Todd Jarvis and Ezra A. Decoto took place on Thursday evening at the home of the bride in East Oakland. The drawing-rooms were crowded with guests, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Owen Holte.

The decorations were artistically planned, the central feature being the altar, beautifully fashioned of smilax with a wedding bell of white roses suspended overhead. The bride was gowning in white crepe de chine, with transparent yoke and sleeves. She wore a tulle veil caught up with orange blossoms and carried bride roses. The maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Jarvis, was gowning in pink, while the bridesmaids, Miss Mabel Yates and Miss Ethel Wallace, wore silk net over green taffeta. The best man was Louis A. Decoto, a brother of the groom. Immediately after the reception Mr. and Mrs. Decoto left for a honeymoon trip to Southern California.

MISSING THE DESKS TO SCHOLARS IN CLASS.

An order has been issued by Superintendent of Schools McClymonds directing the janitors of the various public schools to the effect that during vacation there shall be removed from the rooms in each building all desks above forty-six so that they shall hereafter be the actual seating capacity in each room.

The Superintendent thinks that this will permit the teachers to carry on their statistical reports as enrolled pupils as high as fifty in each classroom, and still come within the limit of forty-six, for the reason that experience has demonstrated that about four children in each class are out on the average during the entire term.

"THE BELLS" DRAWS WELL AT DEWEY

Last night Landers Stevens and his well balanced stock company presented "The Bells" before a large audience at the Dewey Theater. The old favorite was well received. Stevens elicited much applause by his presentation of a traveler for his gold. The scene where Mathias dreams he is under the spell of a hypnotist was particularly strong. Fanny Gillette acquitted herself in her usual clever fashion. The other members of the cast fit their parts well.

"The Bells" will be played for the remainder of the week.

IMMATURE MINDS CAUSE GREAT ANNOYANCE IN CLASSES.

By a report made by Dr. Knox at a meeting of the Board of Education last night it was shown that there are a number of pupils in the public schools who are so deficient in intelligence and perception that special instruction has to be given them.

Upon investigation Dr. Knox reports as having discovered 163 students in sixteen schools who are far below the average intelligence.

Dr. Knox expressed herself most strongly against the habit parents have of swearing falsely in regard to the age of their children, and she thought that it was due to the immature age of the children that special instruction was required.

The doctor made her report as follows: "On investigation I find the following numbers of pupils in the first grade who are so far below normal as to require special instruction: Bay School, 27; Clawson, 11; Cole, 11; Durant, 20; Franklin, 11; Garfield, 24; Grant, 2; Grove, 11; Harrison, 5; Lafayette, 8; Lincoln, 9; Peralta, 11; Piedmont, 5; Prescott, 5; Sweet, 2; Temescal, 5, and Tompkins, 5 total.

"In the Garfield, in addition to the twenty-four mentioned in the report, there are as many more in the first grade who are so immature that they require special instruction."

"These little ones are seldom promoted and only hinder the teacher in her work of instruction."

President Redington stated that he was of the same opinion and the matter was referred to a special investigation committee composed of Directors Knox and Superintendent McClymonds.

M'KNIGHT STOPS A RUNAWAY.

FRUITVALE, June 17.—A frightened horse attached to a light buggy, in which a little girl was driving ran away Saturday afternoon, which, but for the ready action of Groverman McKnight, might have resulted seriously for the child. The cries of bystanders attracted the attention of McKnight to the runaway and in an instant he was at the head of the frightened animal, which he succeeded in stopping. Following the runaway in another buggy was the father of the little girl, and his gratitude to McKnight was unbounded. The heroic action of McKnight was witnessed by many people, who were loud in their praise of his presence of mind.

ELMHURST HAS A SPUR TRACK

ELMHURST, June 17.—E. B. Stone is having a switch track built from the local station to his ranch on the San Leandro road. This branch road is being constructed at his expense, but it is imperative that such a track be built owing to the great amount of work done all over the country by the Stone Company. At the present time they have several large road-building contracts which requires a constant moving back and forth of supplies, grainers, wagons and horses, all of which had to be shipped and received at the San Leandro station and moved from there to the ranch. The branch track will do away with the unnecessary work.

MATTERS OF SPORT OF VARIOUS KINDS.

Radical Changes Made in the Ranks of the Attaches of the Jockey Club—Jeff Tries His Hand at Fishing.

Tomorrow afternoon at Golden Gate Baseball Park we have the rejuvenated Pontes and Mr. Morley's angel band in the opening chapter of a serial that will keep the fans guessing until sundown, on the Sabbath Day. There are just two games difference between the teams in the battle for second place, neither intends to take a step down the ladder of fame and the result will be hair raising baseball from the sound of the gong. Although Manager Morley has some new men on the way it is not believed that any of them will reach the golden shore in time for the coming series. Jackson, who has been signed recently, left the East Saturday and may show in Angel uniform on the benches, but Morley will probably reserve him for the clash with the Lohmanites. Hayden, Harrier, latest find is apt to drop in any old time, and will be put to work as soon as he arrives. He comes as a high class fielder, but his work with the stick was not phenomenal at the East. The Lohmanites will cross wagon tongues with the Senators at the Capital City Thursday afternoon. Franks will be back in harness but Walters is still on the sick list. He may, however, accompany the team to Sacramento.

JEFF TRIES HIS HAND AT FISHING

Hunting for coons has become the same to Champion James J. Jeffries at Harbin Springs, and until the deer season opens next month it is doubtful if he will take again to his form of outdoor recreation. Trout fishing in the well stocked mountain streams in the vicinity of the Springs is now claiming his attention. While on his hunt last Sunday in company with Lou Kelly, the champion tried his hand at landing the speckled beauty for the first time this season, and met with exceptional success. As a result of his skill with the fly his friends at the Springs enjoyed trout for breakfast yesterday morning. Jeffries' cold has almost disappeared, and the big fellow is again at his regular work on the road and in the gymnasium. After several months spent in the gymnasium yesterday morning he drove to Middletown in the afternoon to visit some friends. Jeffries will start his boxing bouts today. He was going to commence yesterday, but owing to the lateness of his return from Middletown he concluded to wait until today, when he will in all likelihood don the mits with Joe Kennedy. At 5:30 o'clock Bob Fitzsimmons was out on the road at Skaggs Springs yesterday morning. He was accompanied by his new friend, a hunting dog belonging to William McArthur. When the Commissioner had been gone about an hour Mrs. Fitzsimmons "Bobby, Jr." and Clark Ball started out to meet him on his return, but by some means missed him. Great was their surprise upon returning to the cottage to find the ex-champion busy preparing his breakfast after having taken his bath in the creek. Before the largest gathering of spectators that has assembled at his gymnasium Fitz west through his afternoon work. Last evening he announced that from now until the 25th of June he will devote his entire time to training faithfully for the big fight, and will forego all pleasure trips.

OPPOSE THE COYOTE HUNT AT HAYWARDS

The Rookwood Club, which is composed chiefly of San Francisco sportsmen, advertised a wildcat hunt which was to have taken place Sunday in the hills near Haywards. In this county, but officials of the Oakland Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals have interfered and compelled them to abandon their program. According to those in charge of the society the form of sport indulged in by the Rookwood Club is most cruel and barbarous. They charge that the sportsmen, mounted on fence-jumpers, armed with rifles and attended by a pack of hounds, give chase to a wildcat or coyote, and after wounding the animal, pit one of the dogs against it for the purpose of witnessing a bloody combat. Peter Mosegaard, who keeps the kennels of the club, lives in a cabin in the hills back of Haywards. He says that the leader of the club is Dr. Clarence Quinan of 2101 Steiner street, San Francisco. Among the other members, he says, are Dr. Elmer D. H. Branscomb, Pichnor and Johnson, all of San Francisco. It was arranged, says Mosegaard, to have a fight between a bull pup and a wounded coyote. J. H. Branscomb, surveyor for the Board of Fire Commissioners, is President of the Rookwood Hunt Club. With Dr. Quinan, the leader of the club, he maintains a flat at 2101 Steiner street.

FOUND FAVOR WITH HENRY.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Captain Max Schnittberger, of the New York Police Department who was in command of the detail at the Pier where the German Emperor's yacht, Hohenzollern, lay during Prince Henry's visit to this country, has decided to accept the warm invitations extended him by the Prince and members of his suite to visit Berlin. The captain, who, through his activity, saved the Prince's party from much annoyance through the persistence of sight-seers, also has received several valuable presents from the Prince and his officers.

SWAIN WILL ACCEPT PLACE.

NEW YORK, June 17.—President John Swain of Indiana University has, according to a special from the presidency, signified his acceptance of the presidency of Swarthmore College, to take effect next September. Dr. Swain made as a condition of his acceptance that Swarthmore raise $100,000 for the purpose of enlarging the college and crossing its curriculum. The trustees announced that the $100,000 has been subscribed, and the fund probably will be still further increased. Dr. Swain has occupied the presidential chair of Indiana.

CHICAGO SECURES TWO MORE BANKS.

CHICAGO, June 17.—Two more banks, one large and one small, have been added to the list of Chicago financial institutions. The large one, the National Bank of North America, began business in the rooms formerly occupied by the Metropolitan National Bank. The smaller one, the Colonial Trust Company, opened in the old quarters of the Western State Bank. The National Bank of North America will cater to all classes, while the Colonial Trust Company expects to build up its business immediately through the patronage in the territory left without immediate banking facilities since the Western State moved away last month.

TRIBUTE TO DR. BARNITZ

ELOQUENT WORDS SPOKEN BY REV. KELLY OF FIRST CHURCH.

A memorial service for the late Rev. S. B. Barnitz, D. D., who died June 14 at his home in Des Moines, was held by the Lutheran Summer School of Theology of this West Coast in the First Lutheran Church, the clergymen who took part in the service were the Revs. R. G. Weidner, L. L. D., of Chicago, H. G. Broke of San Francisco, William Brantley of Alameda, J. E. Holck of San Diego and W. Kelly of Oakland. Addresses were delivered by Revs. Holck and Kelly. Dr. Barnitz was Western Secretary of the Board of Home Missions of the Lutheran Church and exercised supervision over the missions of the church from the Mississippi river to the coast. The following is a part of the address of the Rev. Mr. Kelly:

"Dr. Barnitz is dead. After a long, bare struggle with disease he succumbed to the inevitable and today his body swathed and folded for the grave, lies ready for interment in his far-away home. On Saturday morning the speaker received notice that the end was near. In the evening a telephone message brought the news 'Dr. Barnitz has passed away.' After consultation with Dr. Neiderlander of San Francisco, it was resolved to hold a memorial service, hence this morning's day. In various parts of the country similar services will doubtless be held, but it is especially appropriate that in this State, whose missions were fostered and encouraged by the departed, should his memory be paid to his memory. In the year 1875 while a student at Gettysburg I attended a meeting of the General Synod held at Baltimore. It was at this convention I first saw Samuel Barnitz, at that time pastor of a mission church at Wheeling, West Virginia. Six years later, in 1881, Dr. Barnitz was chosen the first Western Secretary of the Board of Home Missions, a position he held twenty years until the day of his death. This was a station for which he was eminently adapted, bringing to the duties of his office a clear head, warm heart, business sagacity, ardent love for the work, consecrated powers and a spirit of intelligent activity. He was a man of great stature and accomplished a splendid work for Christ and the Church he loved so well. His broad and generous heart, his servant of God almost staggered belief. VARIOUS WORK.

"In addition to his varied tasks of visiting Synods and churches, looking up new points for missions, preaching, lecturing and attending to a correspondence sufficient in itself to task the time and energies of an ordinary man, he traveled in late years an average of twenty thousand miles annually in the interest of his work and where ever he went his presence was a blessing and a source of inspiration to the churches. Dr. Barnitz was a man with a striking personality, a gift with a rare talent of natural eloquence, especially when the subject of discourse was his favorite topic, Home Missions. He was a man of great stature and accomplished a splendid work for Christ and the Church he loved so well. His broad and generous heart, his servant of God almost staggered belief. VARIOUS WORK.

"He has joined the invisible choir of the blessed dead who live again. He has achieved the cross of self-sacrifice and denial for the crown of everlasting rejoicing. We will miss him in the body, but he will still be with us in the fragrance of his memory and in the influence he helped to set in motion and in the work he accomplished in building up the Home Mission activities of the church; and in years to come when the new unoccupied lands of the mighty West are tenanted with a numerous population, when towns, villages, factories and cities shall stand on spots now desert and bare, when the church he helped to establish in so many States and Territories has developed into a splendid spiritual empire, his name will continue to be associated with the work as a conspicuous figure in the early movement, and it may be that when that time arrives the name of Samuel Barnitz will be as honored in the Lutheran Church of the West as the name of Henry Melcher, the father of American Lutheranism is now honored in the churches of the East."

GRASSHOPPERS SPREAD RUIN.

SACRAMENTO VALLEY FARMERS CALL ON THE GOVERNOR FOR AID.

SACRAMENTO, June 17.—The grasshopper plague is a great menace in Sacramento, Eldorado and Placer counties and is getting more threatening every hour. The supervisors of Sacramento county have ordered the pasture land on which the pests are nesting, burned and have sent out deputy sheriffs to see that their orders are obeyed. There were threats on the part of some owners of pasture land to shoot any one who dared to fire their lands, but it does not appear now as though there would be any trouble. The objectors will evidently content themselves with protesting so as to save their legal rights in case they desire subsequently to sue for damages. As the supervisors of Eldorado and Placer counties have failed to do anything in the premises, the secretary of the State Board of Horticulture asked Attorney-General Ford for his opinion as to whether any authority vested in the State to use drastic measures to check the pest. The Attorney-General has answered saying there is such power; that it is vested only in the chief executive; and taking the strong ground that the Governor has the right authority to take necessary measures to check the impending calamity. Acting upon this opinion, Chairman Dillman of the Sacramento County Board of Supervisors, today telegraphed to Governor Gage, informing him of the impending danger.

Delegates from nearly one hundred groves are in attendance. Members are arriving by all trains and already over 300 have reached here.

Much interest attaches to the appeal of Olympia Grove, No. 119, demanding redress from the Grand Grove from a proclamation of suspension issued by Julius S. Godeau, noble grand arch. A full statement of this matter has been issued in printed form and distributed to the delegates. It will be given close consideration until finally disposed of. The statement of the Grand Officers will show that the past year has been a highly satisfactory one to the order. The election of Grand Officers promises to be the exciting and several lively contests are anticipated.
